

Program Fall 2018

Sunday, 16 September 2018

ANDREW ZIMMERMAN

Professor, The George Washington University, Department of History

Conjuring Freedom: German Central Europe in a Global History of the American Civil War

Sunday, 14 October 2018

CLAIRE GREENSTEIN

Postdoc Fellow, Georgia Institute of Technology, Sam Nunn School of International Affairs

Political Cover or Moral Imperative: Reparations in West Germany

Sunday, 4 November 2018

OFER ASHKENAZI

Director, Richard Koebner-Minerva Center for German History, Hebrew University

Toward a Critical Zionist Vision: German-Jewish Photographers and Filmmakers in 1930s Palestine

Sunday, 2 December 2018

JAKOB NORBERG

Professor, Duke University, Department of Germanic Languages and Literature

The People's Property: The Brothers Grimm and the Tales of the Nation

5-7 pm | UNC Chapel Hill | Hamilton Hall 569 | <https://ncgsws.web.unc.edu/>

Conveners: Carolina Seminars | Duke University: Dept. of Germanic Languages & Literature | Dept. of History | The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill: Center for European Studies | Carolina Center for Jewish Studies | Dept. of Germanic and Slavic Languages & Literatures | Dept. of History | Appalachian State University: Center for Judaic, Holocaust and Peace Studies | Contact: Karen Hagemann: UNC Chapel Hill, Dept. of History (hagemann@unc.edu)