Extension of Deadline until June 15, 2022:

CALL FOR PROPOSALS: The Konrad Jarausch Essay Prize for Advanced Graduate Students in Central European History 2022

The North Carolina German Studies Seminar and Workshop Series is pleased to announce the fourth annual Konrad Jarausch Essay Prize Competition for Advanced Graduate Students. In recognition of the longstanding commitment to graduate education of Konrad H. Jarausch, who is the Lurcy Professor of European Civilization in the Department of History of the University of North Carolina, this prize serves to celebrate and cultivate outstanding new talent in the broadly defined field of Central European history from the seventeenth to the twentieth century.

The prize will award the best unpublished article manuscript or dissertation chapter intended for publication by a current graduate student working in the field of Central European history. The recipient of this prize will receive an honorarium of $1,000 and an invitation to present his, her, or their dissertation with a lecture, followed by a discussion in the North Carolina German Studies Seminar (NCGS), preferably in January 2023. This event will provide an opportunity for the winner to receive feedback from a panel of leading scholars. The prizewinner will be encouraged, but not required to submit their revised manuscript for publication.

The NCGS series was started in 2007 by an interdisciplinary and inter-institutional group of scholars in the Research Triangle of North Carolina, which is home to nationally and internationally recognized graduate programs in German Studies. The series has traditionally emphasized graduate education.

Eligibility requirements:

- Applicants must be enrolled in a PhD program at a North American university.
- They should be ABD and have finished their archival research for the dissertation in Central Europe, but must not have defended their dissertation before the spring term 2022.
- Graduate students who applied unsuccessfully before, can apply again, if they did not have defended their dissertation before the spring term 2022.

Requirements for the proposal:

- A statement of up to five pages that outlines the applicant's dissertation project and indicates its state of completion, plus a draft table of contents of the dissertation.
- A CV that clearly indicates when the applicant intends to defend or has defended his, her, or their dissertation and that includes the names of the advisors.
- An unpublished article manuscript, ideally based on the dissertation or a dissertation chapter intended for publication of approx. 10,000 -12,000 words (excluding notes).

If you are interested, please send the application materials to Dr. Thomas Pegelow Kaplan (thomaspegelowkaplan@appstate.edu) by June 15, 2022 at the latest. Please do not hesitate to address any questions about the prize, the required material and the selection process to him.

Prize committee: Dr. James Chappel (Duke University); Dr. Karen Hagemann, Dr. Terence McIntosh, and Dr. A. Dirk Moses (UNC Chapel Hill); and Dr. Thomas Pegelow Kaplan (Appalachian State University).
